FOREWORD

"A good book is the best of friends,
the same to-day and for ever."

We the 1961 staff hope that this edition of THE RAY will help you to relive all the activities, accomplishments, and moments you wish to remember at Rising Sun High School.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class, are proud to dedicate the 1961 edition of THE RAY to Mr. Frank Heaton in recognition of his friendliness and understanding.

FACULTY

PRINCIPALS' MESSAGE

Seniors, it has been a privilege to join hands with the faculty of this school in assisting you to qualify for graduation. In the world of today and tomorrow it appears that education will become increasingly valuable. I believe you will always be happy that you persevered until graduation. As you step beyond Rising Sun High School, the hands which guided you while you were here will continue to be willing to offer support and encouragement in your future.

IN MEMORY

SANDRA KAY BURCHETTE

Since Sandy was one of us for ten years, we knew her well. Because she was a capable, industrious worker, she was an honor student. Although quiet, Sandy seemed always to radiate joy to those around her.

SANDRA TRESSLER

We knew Sandra for only a short time, but she made her presence felt by the friendliness she extended toward each of us.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

Congratulations, girls!

Wake up, Florence! You're sleeping on the job!

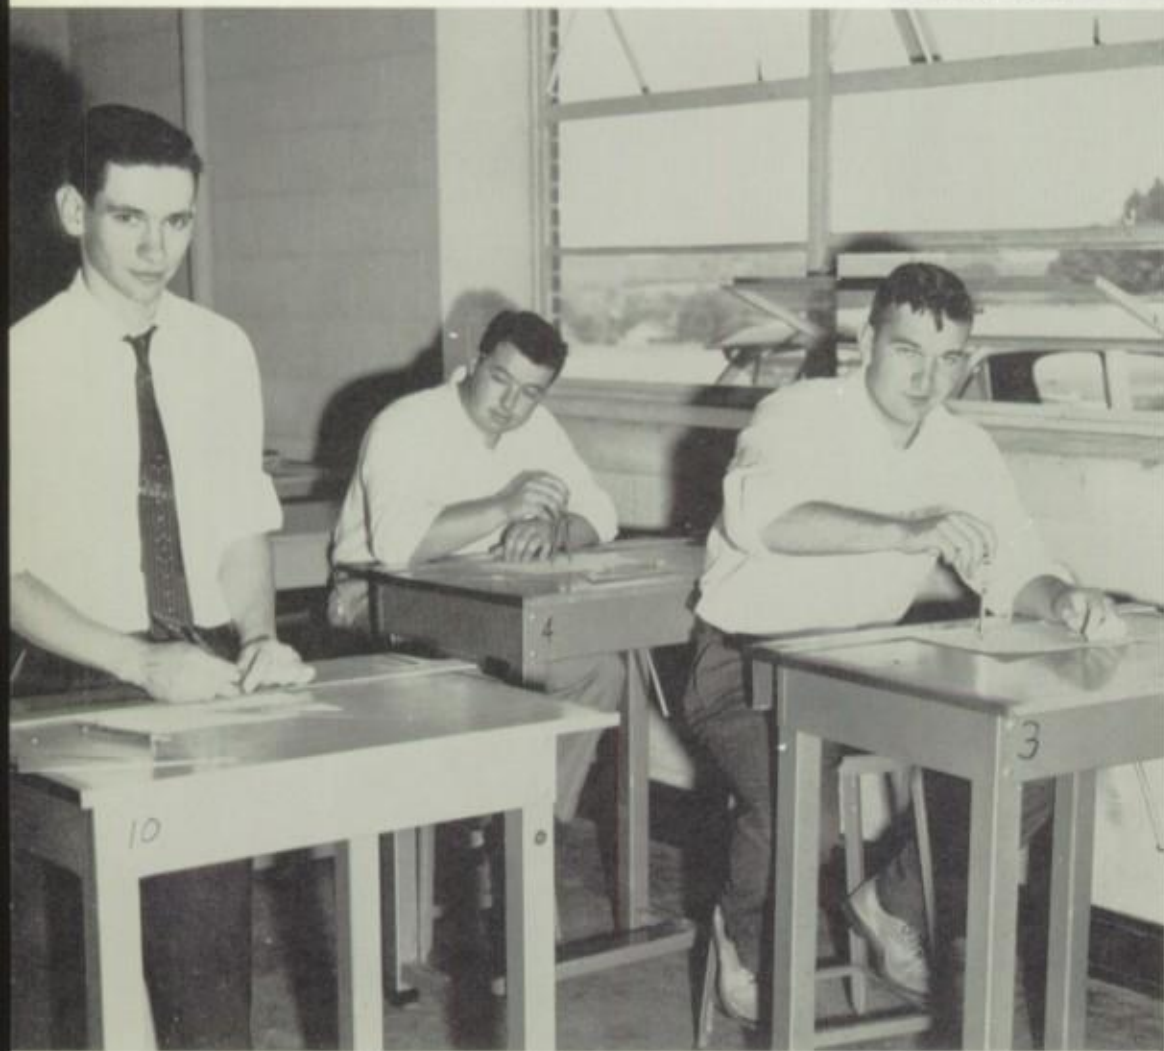

Yea--h, Tigers!

So long, it's been good to know you.

Is Mr. Hackney's hangout for males only?

What's wrong, Kenny?

Interesting looking group!

Working hard, boys?

Not my locker!

She won't catch me this time!

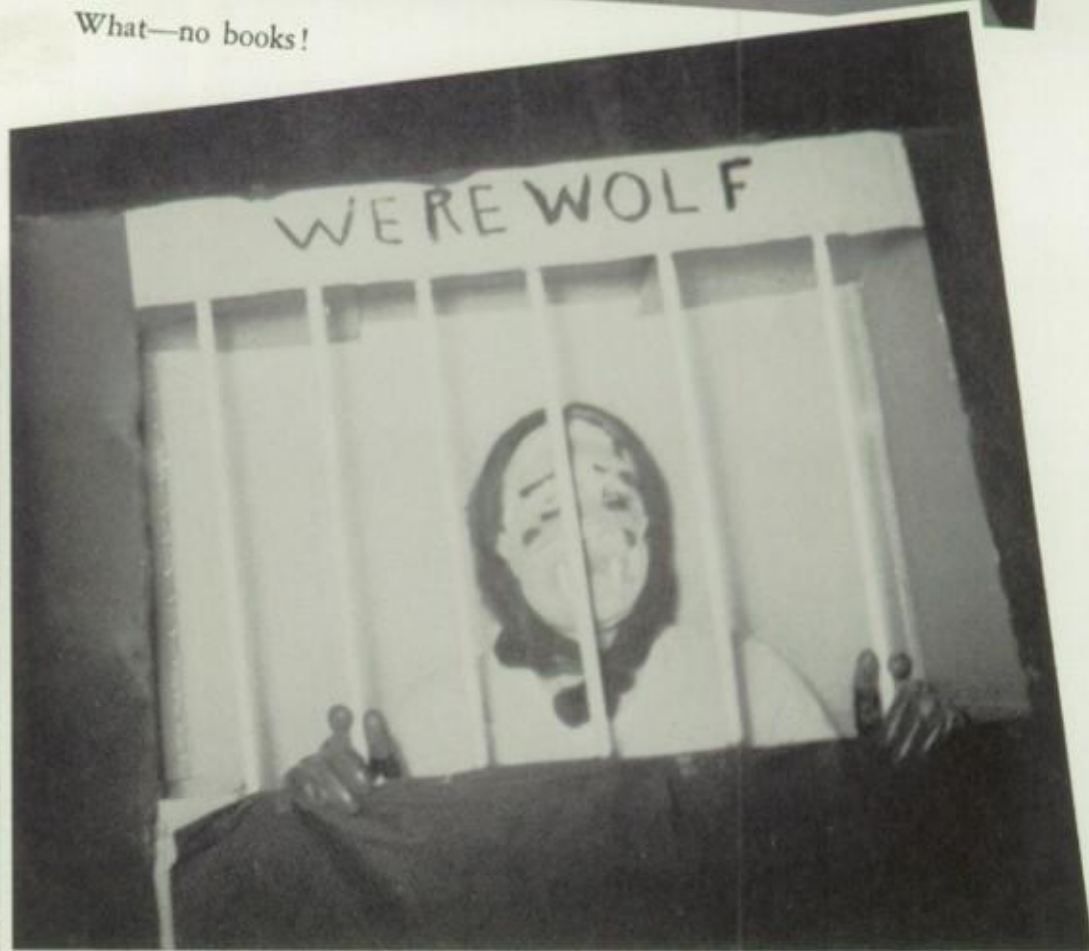

Is business always this good?

What—no books!

Could they be talking about us?

Ugh! Who was that monster?

YOUNG PEOPLE ONLY

Graduating soon? Or just out recently? Here's a break for young men and women. You want to get the protection you'll need later on—for your future advancement, responsibilities and security. Now you can do that—and start building a fund of dollars as well—for much less money that it would take later on. And Living Insurance offers other advantages, for young people only! Call the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.

Dear Tubo,
You're a real nice guy and full of fun. Don't ever forget November 23, 1968
after you've graduated from college and are an engineer and I'm teaching.
Don't ever change because you're lots of fun just the way you are.
Sincerely,
Carol
England

Tubo, Bang, Bang your dead. Best Wishes
Danny

P.S. ZAP
